

Emily Borris-Brookfield-Cosmetology

Emily is an A student, a volunteer for community service and a tour guide in our building. She is everything that you could ask for in a student. I am proud to say she is my student.

Nominated by: Mrs. Gault

Taylor Casper-Southington-Health Science Academy

Taylor is goal oriented, but is also respectful and responsible. In addition to being a top notch student, she is involved in Skills USA in a leadership position. She seeks extra work because she wishes to maximize her development in the nursing field.

Nominated by: Mrs. Reader

Crystal Mackey-Bristol-Math

Crystal has earned the highest grade out of all three Trig classes. She tries her best in everything that she attempts. Additionally, she has a cheerful personality and is upbeat all of the time.

Nominated by: Mrs. McClellan

Melissa Masimore-Hubbard- Visual Design

She completes her work, assists other students and is willing to pitch in wherever she is needed. On Career Day she helped to prepare the lab and greeted students from home schools. She is positive, professional and pleasant.

Nominated by: Mrs. Hickey

Nikita Rasp-Newton Falls-Restaurant Services

Nikita has developed into one of our strongest students during the first semester. At first, she was going to return to her home school, but she stayed the course. It has proven to be a good decision. She is a great asset to our program because of the professional demeanor that she possesses.

Nominated by: Mr. Antenucci

Aaron Schmucker-Harding-English

Aaron is amazing. He is very conscientious and meticulous in his work habits. He is respectful and appreciates everything that you do for him. He is destined to succeed in the future.

Nominated by: Mrs. Adams

Cody Silvers-McDonald-Welding

Cody was selected by his peers as class president. He is a talented welder who takes initiative to get projects completed in lab. I can count on him to lend a hand wherever he is needed. He is also involved in our Outreach program to other schools. He is a great ambassador for the TCTC.

Nominated by: Mr. Olesky
