

TCTC Attendance and Honor Roll Incentive Plan

- I. A conference will be held during the first few weeks of classes for all TCTC students. The following information will be discussed:
  - TCTC attendance and grading policies
  - The importance of good school attendance and academic success.
  - Incentives for honor roll and perfect attendance
  - Penalties for poor attendance and tardiness.

- II. At the conclusion of each 9 week grading period there will be a two drawings for a color TV: one for Honor Roll and one for Perfect attendance
  - A total of eight television sets will be awarded each school year

- III. At the conclusion of the first semester, any student with perfect attendance or on the honor roll for both 9 week periods will receive the following:
  - Student's name will go into a drawing for Cedar Point Tickets
(One for honor roll and one for perfect attendance)

- IV. Two times each school year the Supervisor of Attendance will randomly choose two weeks and hold a "Count Me In" attendance drawing. During these weeks any student who does not miss a day (regardless of his/her previous attendance record) will qualify for a drawing for:
  - MP3 Player
  - Portable DVD Player
  - Digital Camera

- V. Any student who is on the Honor Roll and/or has Perfect Attendance for the entire school year will be in all the above drawings, will receive a Perfect Attendance Certificate and will be eligible to win a free IPOD Touch
  - Students who have perfect attendance and honor roll for the entire school year will have their name in 12 Separate Drawings!

NOTE: If unpaid fees are owed, students may not be eligible to win any incentive prizes. Half day students must provide documentation from the home school to verify 100% attendance in order to be in each drawing.
