

Mr. Ted Burke and Ajax-Tocco have provided a great deal of support for the students in our Computer Aided Drafting and Design and Engineering Tech Prep programs. Among their many contributions to TCTC staff and students the company has arranged field trips, provided demonstrations on the foundry operations, sent top engineers to our classrooms to work with students on robotics projects, mentored students for their senior projects, accepted students for early job placement and internship opportunities, contributed monetarily and served as judges for our annual car show, and provided monetary support for Tech Prep scholarships.

<http://www.ajaxtocco.com>

Mr. Jerry Spence and the Cleveland Punch and Die Corporation's contributions to the staff and students in our CADD and Engineering Tech Prep programs include providing early placement and apprenticeship opportunities for students, arranging field trips, providing assistance for our annual car show, and providing monetary support for Tech Prep scholarships.

<http://www.clevelandpunch.com>

Ms. Debbie Wensel and Drake Manufacturing's contributions to the staff and students in our CADD and Engineering Tech Prep programs include donating equipment to our labs, employing former graduates, facilitating job shadowing and apprenticeship experiences, sending engineers to our classrooms to work with students on robotics projects, arranging field trips, providing monetary support for Tech Prep scholarships, and contributing monetarily and providing judges for our annual car show.

<http://www.drakemfg.com>

Mr. Pete Kringeta and his company have provided valuable support for the staff and students in the CADD and Engineering Tech Prep programs. His contributions include serving as a judge for our annual car show, employing students as contract employees for engineering firms, providing job shadowing opportunities for students, and providing technical support for computer software problems and 3D modeling projects.

<http://www.kringeta.com>

Mr. John Chlebus and The Taylor Winfield Corporation's contributions to the staff and students in our CADD and Engineering Tech Prep programs include providing early placement and job shadowing opportunities for students, arranging field trips, providing technical support for complex software problems, and acting as guest presenters to teach units on Geometric Dimensioning and Tolerancing for CADD and Engineering senior students.

<http://www.taylor-winfield.com>